OCTOBER TFC RALLY REPORT

The October rally began with a greeting from Andrew Laughlin and a solicitation for volunteers. Gabe Rice, Hana Cool, Bryson Schmidt, Levi Cool, and Peyton Walters, Glasco, Robert McKain and Jacob Brown, Delphos, and Jordan Cunningham, Rael Beals, and Xavier Hunter, Miltonvale, all willingly took the stage to participate in the game "Electricity."

Andrew then opened with prayer. Xavier Hunter, Miltonvale, was honored for his upcoming 14th birthday in the birthday moment. His friend Jordan Cunningham doled out the swats with Kent Otott giving the one to grow on.

Amber Rogers and Shad Clark then led praise and worship. Both Amber and Shad have done music at previous TFC Rallies, but this is the first time the done so as a duo under the name Rogers & Clark.

Kent then introduced his classmate and friend, Pastor Shawn Baird. Shawn, Shawn Baird shared a great message. We expect to have him back in 2017 to hear his whole story.

billed as the "Iron Man Pastor," told of his experiences competing in Iron Man triathlons. He explained how much time it takes to train for such events. He has decided not to train for a full Iron Man, after weighing the time and money it requires to train. He said we must count the cost. He shared Luke 14:25-35. While the gift of salvation is free, discipleship has a cost. When coming to Christ, we can't stay like we were before. We need to work at becoming more like Jesus. We must count the cost, and walk away from things that are hindering us. We don't like to do that. We like things that are cheap and easy, but sanctification isn't like that. It's a lifelong process. Shawn wrapped up by sharing the opportunity to trust Jesus. The evening closed with Amber Rogers leading "Nothing But the Blood" and a prayer from Kent.

The next TFC Rally will be on Saturday, November 19th, featuring the magic of Devin Henderson and the return of the praise and worship duo Rogers & Clark. Details are on page three of this TEENS FOR CHRIST UPDATE.

If that is something you would be interested in doing, please call the Teens For Christ office at 785-243-1154 to get on the schedule and shine for the Lord!

TFC Presents: The Magic and Comedy of DEVIN HENDERSON

A Mind Blowing Evening for All Ages!

Devin Henderson is a clean comedian (he takes showers) and he tricks out his stand-up with surprising and unusual talents. Along with events nationwide, Devin performs often at the Kansas City Improv Comedy Club and he's an international sensation because of that one show in Canada. A family studies degree from Kansas State University and a sense of humor both explain Devin's nine years of marital survival despite a litter of four children. Comedy writes itself for a man blessed to be living with a family of six. From texting typos to backseat slap-fights to a home water birth, the material never runs dry.

Devin is the author of a small book (tiny, actually) called "Share Your Magic," a pickpocket's take on applying The Golden Rule (yeah, you just have to read it). Devin's main passion as a performer is using his talents and knowledge to inspire others to "perform" at their best in all they do and point people to Jesus Christ.

Saturday, November 19th @ 7:00pm

Brown Grand Theatre • 310 West Sixth Street, Concordia, KS
