FEBRUARY TFC RALLY REPORT

by Amanda Demars, Associate Correspondent

The February TFC Rally started off with praise and worship led by Firebrand of Minneapolis. Rally attendees, numbering 98, participated enthusiastically.

Marshmallow Catch participants competed for a $10 purse and we all were treated to a glimpse of Kent's athletic prowess as marshmallows were tossed from the balcony towards the open mouths on stage. One by one, students were given 3 tosses. Lynnae Benyshek of Belleville won with two out three catches. Andrew Laughlin provided ESPN-like coverage and Chloe Nielsen served as the game assistant.

Featured Birthday Moment girl was Cheneal Benne of Courtland. Fifteen paddles, plus one to grow on, were happily doled out by her friend Nichole Allen.

The next order of business was the Jelly Bean BeanBoozled Challenge. Katherine Collins of Glasco helped distribute jelly beans to Chasidea Tyree of Miltonvale, Daryl Singkofer of Superior, NE, John Price of Belleville and Brianna Affolter of Clyde. The BeanBoozled Challenge uses identical looking, but not tasting, jelly beans. Each person is given a bean of the same color. The deceiving bean could be chocolate pudding or dog food, lime or lawn clippings, black licorice or skunk spray. All four conquered the beans.

Former no-name Cloverton roadie and current TFC game master Andrew Laughlin of Chapman was the evening's speaker. He spoke on following instructions and used 2 Timothy 3:10 and Matthew 4 to remind us of our need to get into the book of instructions God has given us and the importance of knowing it. He pointed out how Jesus rebuked Satan with Scripture. Andrew used the children's book "The Book With No Pictures," which, while lacking illustrations, requires the reader to read everything aloud, including silly phrases and sounds, because that's the rule. Another example was making a PB&J sandwich. Kaleb Jones of Beloit coached Andrew on the proper assembly of a sandwich, and again pointed out the importance of correctly following instructions.

Kent tied things together with 2 Timothy 2:15 and as every month, pointed to Jesus.

The next TFC Rally will be on Saturday, March 19th, featuring the return of The McKinney Sisters. Details are on page three of this TEENS FOR CHRIST UPDATE.
