FEBRUARY TFC RALLY REPORT

The February TFC Rally saw an audience of 85 attend a very unique program. The evening started out with TFC Game Master Andrew Laughlin leading three pairs through a game of Norwegian Nose Dive. Walking away with Kalona CDs were John Lamb and Haley Zahnter of Republic County.

With Kalona making her return to the stage of the Brown Grand Theatre along with special guest speaker Dr. Stephanie said and done, both Kalona and Dr. Wick represented what a glorious hope can be found in Jesus Christ. Teens For Christ is looking forward to hosting this dynamic duo again sometime.

The next TFC Rally will be on Saturday, March 18th, featuring the return of Dramatic Truth Ballet Theatre. Details are on page three of this TEENS FOR CHRIST UPDATE.

MEMORIALS IN HONOR OF A FRIEND

Don Earley, a longtime friend of Kent Otott, went home to be with the Lord on February 21st. He was a longtime supporter of Teens For Christ and well known throughout the region. Please continue to lift up his wife, Marilyn, during this time of transition. His graveside service will be on March 11th in Belleville at 2:30 p.m.

Several of his friends have already given memorial gifts in honor of him and we would like to thank them with this brief mention: Anita Pyrah of Anaheim, CA, and David & Linda Bogart of Concordia. Thank you for your gifts in honor of Don.
